

Indiana's "No-call List" has been a godsend. I have never purchased anything from a phone solicitor and never will. They are disruptive and obnoxious intrusions into my home. The no call list stopped all that for me. Please do not weaken this law. The citizens of Indiana have the right to choose whether or not to have sales people call them at home.